SPECIAL CHRISTMAS SALE.
Low Prices! Cheerful Credit! Only One Day Left!

Casner Mich. Inc. are certainly booming Xmas buying. They are determined to break all records, and so for a last final grand day, have lowered prices which in connection with their system of giving credit to all who ask for it, not even asking for a deposit at the time of purchase, should test the capacity of the store to its limit. The store is splendidly arranged to make Xmas buying an easy matter and all their great bargains can easily be seen. Just at this time, of course, the big jewelry department with its glittering array of diamond rings in solitaires and clusters, and the colored stone rings for ladies, is most attractive. There are handsome watches for ladies and men, signet rings, bracelets, pins, etc. The fur department with its Caracul, Pony Skin, Coney and Plush Coats, and fur sets in a big variety of furs is a magnet for the ladies, as is the special sale of all-wool serge, tailored suits, full length coats and children's coats.

DEMOCRATS ANGRY

OVER REINSTATEMENT OF P. O. INSPECTORS DROPPED FOR PERNICIOUS POLITICS DURING CAMPAIGN.

(Special from United Press.)
Washington, Dec. 23.—A howl of large volume is reaching the ears of Democratic Congressmen from the Southwest over the action of the Post Office Department in reinstating a number of inspectors who were released from the service during the Presidential campaign for pernicious political activity on behalf of Taft. According to the report, all inspectors have been given as good positions as they had before and are drawing larger salaries than when they quit.

"The inspectors were not discharged but were allowed to resign," explained a member of Congress who is now investigating the story. "Had they been discharged it would have been difficult to get them back. But as they resigned voluntarily they may be restored to the payroll within a year without re-examination or other unpleasant and dilatory course of procedure. The offenses charged against them were of the usual sort—working overtime among their fellow-employees in the interests of Mr. Taft. Charges were filed with the department and the inspectors were brought on the carpet to give an explanation of their conduct. Under the civil service rules there was no legislation possible if the charges were proven and it seemed to be up to them to either get our gracefully or wait for the civil service commission to order them off the rolls. They resigned."

"Now, if the stories we are getting from our home towns are true, inspectors have restored their old employees to better positions than they held before."

"We Democrats are wondering whether these lucky men will be back on their jobs if they had worked just as hard for Mr. Bryan as they did for the successful candidate."

At the office of the Post Office Inspector nothing was said regarding the story of the reinstated inspectors.

Water Famine Feared At Atlantic City

(Special from United Press.)
Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 23.—The pumping station at Absecon which supplies this city with fresh water, was destroyed by fire today and there is grave danger of a water famine in the district. The engines from town have been stationed at the Absecon plant and they are pumping water from the storage basin into the mains, but they are unable to give it force enough to send it to the tops of the buildings and there will be a scarcity of water until a temporary pumping station can be constructed. Should fire break out in the city the situation would be serious.
